

CHRISTIAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Resolutions Committee of the Women's Missionary Council

Resolution 1-1

RESOLUTION RENAMING THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS
THE SYLVIA MOORE FAULK CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

Executive Committee of the Women's Missionary Council
Mrs. Jacqueline I. Scott, President
January 28, 2020

"If it does not happen at the local level it does not happen."

Whereas, Sylvia M. Faulk served exceptionally as the seventh President of the Women's Missionary Council and

Whereas, she embodied a Christian faith and shared her time and resources to advance many affiliate programs of organizations partnering with the Missionary Council and

Whereas, she successfully served as President of the North American Area of the World Federation of Methodist and Uniting Church Women from 1991-1996 and also Vice President of the World Council of Churches and

Whereas, she worked tirelessly with the Children's Defense Fund, the National Council of Negro Women, and her own community as an avid activist promoting a better community and a better city council; therefore,

Be it resolved, that as a lasting legacy to the Women's Missionary Council that we rename the Christian Social Relations Commission, THE SYLVIA MOORE FAULK CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION remembering her dedication and commitment as a faithful servant leader who inspired and motivated so many hearts that she touched and

Be it further resolved, that we enact this resolution and that a copy is archived in the annals of the Women's Missionary Council of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.