Resolution 4-4

Resolution Establishing a Scholarship Fund in Honor of Dr. Sylvia Moore Faulk

Children of Dr. Sylvia Moore Faulk: Heidi Faulk, Shannon Faulk, Dionne Faulk, Fitzgerald Faulk, and Sabastian Faulk

January 28, 2020

Whereas, Dr. Sylvia Moore Faulk served as the 7th President of the Women's Missionary Council, displaying a genuine love for people, young and old. She emphasized education, and thus earned a Doctorate Degree, showing that anything and everything is possible when putting God first and

Whereas, today the family of Dr. Faulk wishes to establish an Educational Scholarship in her honor. We believe this financial award will assist in providing students the opportunity to obtain a higher education and

Whereas, Dr. Faulk's most notable attribute was not waiting for the applause of man but rather rendering her gifts to the Glory and Honor of God, by which we feel this scholarship will give credence to her legacy. Two qualified graduating seniors will receive $500.00 at each Quadrennial Assembly; therefore,

Be it resolved, that we humbly request you to consider our submission of this resolution for approval and solely established for the honor of Dr. Sylvia M. Faulk. The official name will be "The Sylvia M. Faulk Missionary Higher Education Scholarship" and

Be it further resolved, that the family, extended family, and others of Dr. Sylvia Moore Faulk desire to establish this scholarship at the 2020 Executive Board to convene in Atlanta, Georgia on February 25-29. We implore you to remember the coined phrase of Dr. Faulk, "If it does not happen at the local church level, it does not happen" and

Be it finally resolved, that in the month of February, Two Thousand Twenty a copy of this resolution be given to the Resolutions Committee and a copy be placed in the Historical files of the Women's Missionary Council.
